The Reverend Dr. Alyn Waller is Senior Pastor of the Enon Tabernacle Baptist Church in Philadelphia. A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Dr. Waller earned a BS in Music Business from Ohio University, an MDiv from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and a DMin in Ministry to Marriage and Family from Palmer Theological Seminary. He also holds an honorary doctorate from Lincoln University.

Rev. Waller has been the pastor at Enon Tabernacle since 1994 and in that time the church has expanded to two locations, serves over 15,000 members, and has been involved in many community initiatives over the years including critical health screenings and AIDS testing.

Dr. Waller's outreach extends far beyond the walls of Enon through local community activism and radio, television, and social media commentary. He is an accomplished author and musician, and serves internationally both through preaching and service.
